

SAN FRANCISCO CHINESE GOLF CLUB
2009 32nd INVITATIONAL
October 3 & 4, 2009

“It was a dark and stormy day”.....well, it almost felt like that Friday morning October 2 at Rancho Canada, Carmel. Eleven eager teams assembled to battle it out for the Shaw Pang Challenge cup. They raised their gauntlets beneath heroic and colorful banners – Man-O-War, Hot Shots, Achievers, Anchorman, S&H Corp., Peking Duck, Cascade Crew, Hayward-Lum Plus. When the dust of the conflict settled, these teams emerged victorious with bragging rights:

1st Place Team – The Dragons

Bobby Chang, Carol Lee, Lawrence Ma, Avachai Tayjasanat

2nd Place Team – SFCGC Girl Wiz

Sandra Lo, Carol Cheng, Terri Huang, Areewan Fasudhani

3rd Place Team – Sacramento CGC

Jessica Yee, Greg Yip, Glen Ginrich, Kenneth Yee

At the Invitational Saturday & Sunday, we were greeted with California’s unpredictable summer weather – cloudy, windy, and chilly. The tee gifts of warm, bright windbreakers were a welcome addition to our wardrobes, thanks to the foresight of Rancho Canada GC. Hats off to the winners, who conquered the intricacies of Laguna Seca’s greens, Rancho Canada’s tree infested fairways, ball eating barrancas, not to mention the damp weather.

An awards dinner capped the weekend’s event at Rancho Canada Fiesta Banquet Room. Everyone enjoyed the camaraderie and the opportunity of meeting and playing with golfers from clubs near and far. Our thanks to the tournament co-chairs Russell & Kirby Kwok and their tireless committee for making this an outstanding invitational. We appreciate everyone for their enthusiastic support of our club’s event. Thanks to all!
